PUT RICH MAN OFF THE CAR

Then "Nickelless" New Yorker Worth $100,000 Was Unable to Borrow a Cent.

"I never felt particularly sorry for beggars until a few years ago," said a widely known New York business man whose check is good for $100,000, "but I know how it feels to be without a cent in your pocket and unable to borrow a nickel. I started for home the other night on a trolley car, and when the conductor came for my fare I found that I didn't have a cent in my clothes.

"Come, cough up, there," said the conductor, as I felt embarrassed in every pocket. 'I suppose you'll say you lost your fare. Well, that don't go, see. Too many try to work that on me.'

"All eyes were upon me and many smiled, but no one offered to come to the rescue. When we reached the other side of the Brooklyn bridge I got off and went into several stores, where I thought I would have no difficulty in borrowing car fare. But although I produced cards and letters to prove my identity not a single one would give me a cent. I was finally forced to walk the two miles to my house. New York is certainly a chilly town when you're broke."

To obtain this extraordinary offer prompt action is necessary. Remit to J. B. Lippincott Company, Washington Square, Phila., Pa. Advertisement.

Price of a Kid.
Cordova is full of fun, says Mr. G. Bogue Luffmann in his "Quiet Days in Spain," and in the leisurely pace of the life there the observer has time to see and appreciate all of it. In the market one day a small boy with a big pron and a pompous manner was offering half of a small kid to a woman for a peseta. She objected that it was very tiny, and he fairly smothered her with, "Woman! Do you want half a bull for a tenpence?"

The Quinine That Does Not Affect The Head Because of its tonic and laxative effect, LAXATIVE BROMO QUININE is better than ordinary Quinine and does not cause nervousness nor ringing in head. Remember the full name and look for the signature of Dr. W. GROVE, 230.

Just Half in Bed.

Clyde, Ky.—Mrs. L. A. Decker: "I recommend Cardui, the woman's tonic, to any woman in need of a remedy. For five years, I was unable to do my own work. Half my time was spent in bed. At last I tried Cardui. Now I am well and happy, and can do my own work." Don't suffer pain, leadache, backache, and other womanly miseries, when your own druggist has on his shelf a remedy for such troubles—Cardui. Get a bottle for your shelf. As a general tonic, for weak women, nothing has been found for 50 years that would take its place. Try it, it will help you.—Advertisement.

EXECUTIONER IS KEPT BUSY

Wholesale Killings in China Necessary to Suppress the Threatened Revolutions.

That 28 executions within three days is not an unusual occurrence in China under the government of Yuan Shi Kai was the statement made by the Rev. Newton Dubs, son of Bishop Rudolph Dubs, and a missionary to Changsha, province of Hunan, China, under the control of the United Evangelical church. Mr. Dubs has only recently reached Baltimore after spending 14 years as a missionary in China.

Speaking of the precarious position of any government in China, Mr. Dubs said that only wholesale executions were able to suppress the revolutionaries. The ordinary citizens he described as peace-loving and desirous of having stable government.

Mr. Dubs thinks that the European war threatens disaster to China. She is at the mercy of Japan, despite the protestations of good faith made by that country, he said. China is also unable to float the loan that is immediately necessary for the maintenance of her government.

SPECIAL TO WOMEN

The most economical, cleansing and germicidal of all antiseptics is

Paxtine

A soluble Antiseptic Powder to be dissolved in water as needed.

As a medicinal antiseptic for douches in treating catarrh, inflammation or ulceration of nose, throat, and that caused by feminine ill it has no equal. For ten years the Lydia E. Pinkham Medicine Co. has recommended Paxtine in their private correspondence with women, which proves its superiority. Women who have been cured say it is "worth its weight in gold."
